Planet in Crisis: Mercy Response

October 29-31, 2010 • Biddeford Pool, ME

There is hope.

Many scientists still believe that bold action on a massive planetary scale can avert the worst of the catastrophe.

And we have the human imagination, the resources, the legal tools, and the bureaucracy to tackle this challenge head on.

– Mary Christina Wood

Keynote Speaker Mary Christina Wood

Professor of Law, University of Oregon School of Law; Founding Director, Environmental and Natural Resources Program; Co-Author of The Dawn of Planetary Patriotism: A Citizens Call to Climate Defense, and author of Nature's Trust: A Paradigm for Natural Resource Stewardship, forthcoming in 2010. Dr. Wood will join us by live video stream in order to reduce her carbon footprint.

“Today we need ordinary people who can convey the urgency of carbon reduction, deliver the trust framework of responsibility, teach people how to conserve and inspire extraordinary action...”
– Mary Christina Wood

I am committed to bringing forth an environmentally sustainable, spiritually fulfilling and socially just human presence on this planet as the guiding principle of our time.
