Character & Fitness

We review all applications holistically with emphasis on your most recent conduct. We ask these questions because honesty and candor are essential characteristics when entering the legal profession. We welcome applicants who have gained valuable insight from past experience, both positive and negative. If you answer affirmative to any of these questions, please provide a short explanation in the space provided. An affirmative answer will not necessarily preclude you from participation in the program. These questions are an element of most law school applications.

* Have you ever been placed on academic warning or probation, suspended, expelled or been required to withdraw, had a scholarship or award revoked, or been the subject of any other disciplinary action or proceedings for academic or social misconduct in your post-secondary education (beyond high school)? Yes No

 Have you ever been placed on probation, suspended, expelled, terminated, or otherwise disciplined by any professional organization, state agency, or place of employment?*

Yes No

 Including any matters that may have been expunged, except expunged juvenile matters, have you ever been cited, arrested, charged, or convicted of a criminal offense?*

Yes No

 Are there any such disciplinary actions, charges, or proceedings referenced in the three questions above pending or expected to be brought against you?*

Yes No

Additional Materials

In addition to submitting this application, you must also submit:

- Two (2) original essays. Each essay should be one page, double-spaced, 12pt Times New Roman font.
 - ▶ In our PLUS Program, it is critical that every participant feels they belong, and that they matter. Please tell us about a time or experience in your life where you felt like you belonged, and you mattered.
 - ▶ In what ways have your unique life experiences (e.g. history, social identities, value, etc.) influenced your interest in law school and the practice of law?
- A current resume.
- One (1) letter of recommendation. Letters should come from someone who can comment on your potential for success in the program
- One (1) copy of your undergraduate transcript.

Your application will not be complete until all required materials are received by Oregon Law. A link will be provided upon submission of the application where you will submit these materials.
