

CONGRATULATIONS!

PILLARS OF THE COMMUNITY

LLM: ABDULLA AL SHARIF

Abdullah steps in to solve problems... representing and communicating on behalf of his peers... he brings care and compassion to his interactions with others, listens carefully and actively pursues understanding... he always tries his best to offer multiple solutions to help solve issues... I am very impressed with Abdullah's leadership skills.

CRES: BELÉN VEGA

Belén is diligent, kind, smart, empathetic, compassionate, curious, driven, creative, fun, funny, professional, tough, full of grace, and overall just an incredible human... she connects with people on a deep level... she is generous with her time and her compassion... she expresses gratitude often and is humble in receiving praise... she has made a positive impact on CRES and will continue to do so in any community she works in.

1L: HARJOT SINGH

Jot consistently displays positive energy and a smile... he stops to talk to each person and check-in with how they are doing, especially in a stressful environment like law school... his energy and enthusiasm are greatly appreciated... he inspires and motivates others... and strives to build a connection with everyone he meets.

FACULTY: JENNIFER REYNOLDS

Professor Reynolds is a phenomenal educator... I've learned so much about the law, society and how to be a better person in all of her classes... she has been and continues to be a beacon of transparency, support, and leadership... she genuinely seeks out student feedback... her teaching style is agile and collaborative... Professor Reynolds obviously cares about her students and about this community... she challenges her students to think about how we can all do better and how we can act in an ethical and values-based manner... throughout the COVID-19 crisis, she's remained a kind, empathetic, flexible, understanding, steadying force for good for all of her students... I'm positive that she's one of the best professors I have ever had.

2L: SARAH OSBORN

Sarah has thrown herself wholeheartedly into the Oregon Law Community... she is constantly working to make sure every single individual that attends Oregon Law is valued, heard, and supported... she is motivated to succeed by providing for others... she is committed to creating a just learning environment for students... a strong advocate around representation, diversity, and inclusion within the law school and the legal community as a whole.

ADMINISTRATOR: REBECCA IVANOFF

Dean Ivanoff is a dynamic leader... she's thoughtful, intelligent, caring, and deeply committed to student success... she builds bridges, making meaningful connections, and supporting students around the clock... she inspires and challenges student to be authentic, flexible, and open to opportunities... she is an exceptional listener and she notices when her colleagues need help, too... she can always be counted on to offer advice, collaborate on a project, and get things done under a deadline.

3L: RAVYN GOSS

Ravyn is a model leader at the University of Oregon School of Law... she is a true advocate, she is intelligent, she is resourceful, and her contributions to the law school community are exemplary... Ravyn is passionate about what she believes in and not afraid to fight for it... she is true to herself and is always sure that she is a supportive mentor and friend... her everyday actions show that she cares and that she will do good in this world... she has constantly impressed me with her ability and commitment to building an inclusive, caring community... I am in awe of her courage in the face of adversity.

STAFF: JESS YATES

Jess is one of the most helpful community members at UO law... he is a treasure to the law school, especially during this unprecedented time where we have moved to online instruction... one of the most supporting and dependable... my days are genuinely better when we run into each other... he is someone that I can lean on every day... Jess has been a steady influence in assisting faculty... is just an all around important and valuable member of our team.
